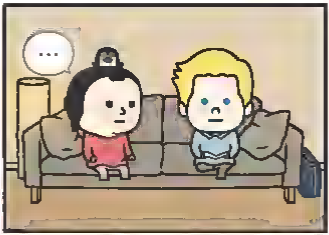
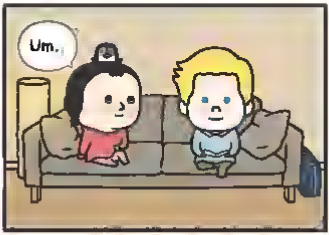
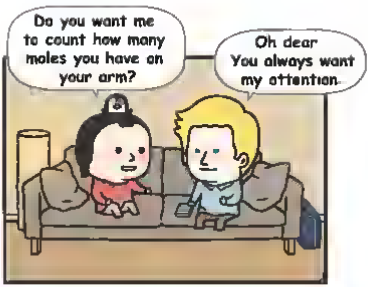
A Chatterbox

Mev says,
I sometimes talk too much.



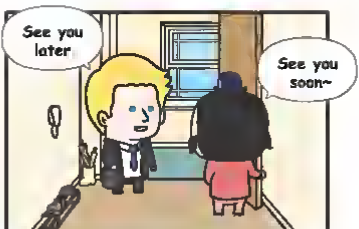
As we're always together
apart from when we are working,
there is not much to say.



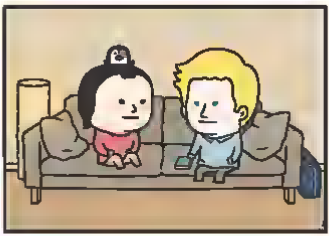


But I like talking about random stuff to Mev anyway

I think..

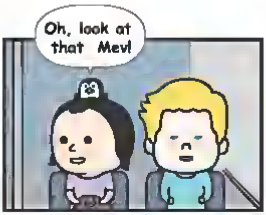


Because I don't have a chance to talk someone after Mev leaves to work,...

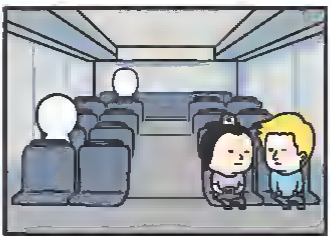


...I want to receive his attention as a kind of compensation.

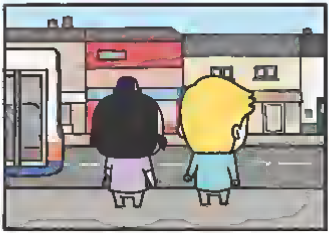
I'm not sure
Mev understands this



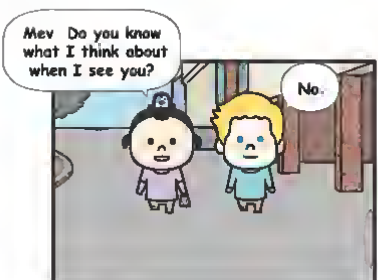
Oh? He's sleeping.

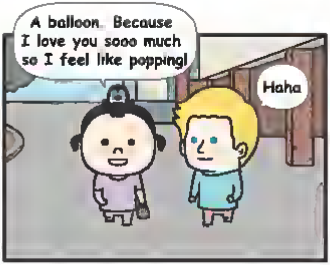


Because he does these things sometimes.

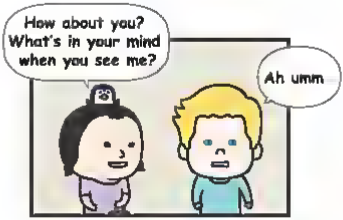


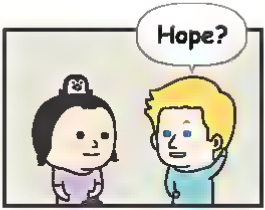
However...





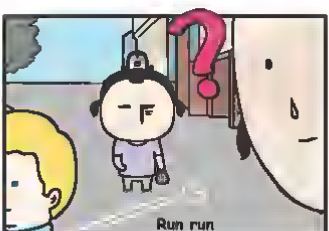
I love him so much.





And he loves me so much too

... So things like
what he did on the bus
just before...



.. I'll remember forever.

Where is my bat?
